Lois Axtell is teaching in the high school at Portland, Ind.

HOOVER COTTAGE.

There are now fifty-five girls in the Cottage, about five less than were enrolled last year. More than half of these are new girls.

Miss Alice Boyd of Millersburg, is visiting her sister, Elva Boyd.

Excitement was running high in the Cottage Friday evening. A serenade on the fourth floor, stunts on the third and some spirited basketball practice on the second, all served to make things lively for the new girls.

ATHENAEAN.

The literary societies of the collegiate department regret that so small a number of lower classmen were present Friday evening. Don't be afraid to come the next night. This program was given in Athenaeum:

Declamations, Peck and Bay; Extempore, Machwart, J. B. Devor, J. H. West and Hannum; Oration, Harries; Debate—Resolved, That U. S. Senators should be elected by the direct vote of the people. Affirmative, Barton and W. C. Richards. Deny., Post and R. O. West. This debate resembled the pleas of four lawyers.

ORIO.

Orio held its first meeting in Lowell Hall. The program was especially interesting and well rendered.

Recitations, Misses Palmer and Boston; Original Story, Miss Boston; Current Events, Miss Gilman; Readings, Misses McCandlish and Bryan; Budget, Miss Gable.

The literary work in the academy is very important and therefore we wish that all the young women of the department would join.

Prof. Painter is a native of Licking county. His education he acquired at Denison and Ohio Normal. His school work has been quite varied; beginning with country school work he has progressed to the village superintendency, city high school work, and recently he has organized rural school systems and has done some private teaching. With his broad experience he comes to us to take some of Prof. Wenner's classes.

Another new instructor in the Preparatory department is John C. Boyd. He graduated from the University in 1879 and taught in the Academy from 1880 until 1904. After making an extended trip to Europe, he took up high school work at Jackson, Doylestown and Seville. He now returns to Wooster as instructor in German and Latin.

The active members of K. A. T. enjoyed a social time in Kauke hall on Friday evening.

ATHLETICS.

With the first regular game only a few days away, the team is down to hard work in earnest. Next Saturday the team will journey to Alliance and try conclusions with Mt. Union's eleven. Last Saturday Mt. Union suffered defeat at the hands of Case to the tune of 27 to 5. In this game they were outweighed 12 pounds to the man, and in addition, they were compelled to play against a team of veteran players. Nevertheless they succeeded in scoring once, while but 3 of Case's touch downs were the result of straight football. They are fast, just as heavy as we are and have the advantage of two weeks more practice, so it will readily be seen that to make a good showing Wooster must put up a snappy article of foot ball.

Last week's practice was very encouraging. Coach Johnson believes firmly that condition is one of the most important factors for a winning team, and he started the men in at slow speed and has been increasing the speed a little each day. As a result the team is now in fairly good physical condition without the necessity of starting a hospital list. This same method has been used by Seaman of Reserve and Herrnstein of O. S. U. and as a result, Reserve and Ohio State have had the best conditioned teams in Ohio.

Saturday the first and second teams lined up for two 15 minute halves. The final score was 12 to 0 in favor of the first team. The line as a whole worked well, and the back field was able to make good gains on off-tackle plays, the main weakness being in running the ends. The first touch-down was the result of an on-side kick and a series of off-tackle plays. Gault finally carrying the ball over the line. W. W. White made another touch-down in the second half. He also kicked two pretty goals.

Line-up:—

Second Team		Positions	First Team

NOTES.

St. John must be happier down at Wesleyan just now. He started out with but three men of last year's team, but since then Patton, who can play either tackle or fullback, Carson, also a tackle, and Hicks, three veterans, have returned and are eligible to play. The team will average from 165 to 170 pounds to a man. St. John announces that he intends to stick to the old style of play this season.

Longman, of Michigan, who coached Wooster last year, has charge of the foot ball squad at Notre Dame. "Sammy" Brinton, end for Wooster last year, is taking a course in foot ball under him. "Sammy," when in condition, is a mighty good p'ayer, but was handicapped last year by injuries.

Wooster will be well represented in other schools this fall. Hatfield, one of the best players ever in our school is sure of a fullback or half back position at O. S. U. Thompson, who played a guard last year, is now a member of the Freshman eleven at University of Chicago.

Foot ball results in Ohio last week:

Case 27, Mt. Union 5.
O. S. U. 14, Otterbein 0.
Kenyon 26, Columbus East High 0.
Wittenberg 11, Wilmington 3.
W. & J. 15, Denison 2.

CROSS COUNTRY.

Every man in the school should take up some form of athletics during these fall days. Not every man can play foot ball, but every man

CAN come out and join the squad of cross country runners and get as much pleasure and training from it as the best man on the squad. There is no standing on the side lines, waiting for a chance to get into the play; you are always in the race from start to finish and must prove your own worth without the assistance of another man.

A Cross Country Club is being formed, to which all men are eligible and the work is being put on a solid basis. The squad leaves the gym daily at a little after four o'clock. Every man come out and try for the team and either make it or give the other fellow who does, a race for his money.

Y. W. C. A.

The first regular meeting of the Y. W. C. A. for this year was held Wednesday evening in Willard Hall. The large attendance of both new and old girls seemed to lend inspiration for the work at the start. Alma Dodds, the chairman of the Bible Study Committee, had charge of the meeting, presenting with earnestness the cause of this important phase of Y. W. C. A. work. The leader spoke of the marked ignorance of so many of our so-called educated girls and women in regard to the simplest Bible stories and truths. Five courses were offered for study this year and a fairly large number signed up for work. College girls have all the time there is to use for their best development, and surely too much time cannot be spent in the study of God's word. It will be only fair to ourselves, as well as to God, to give the matter of systematic Bible study our consideration and your example in this line may count for a good deal to some other girl.

Annual Missionary Meeting.

The annual missionary meeting of Westminster church was held last Friday evening in Kauke Hall. About 150 members were present and a fine social time was enjoyed. After the prepared supper, Mrs. Palmer introduced in turn, Dr. Holden, Dean Compton, Dr. Tait, Dr. Heron and Dr. Hills. The central thought was the influence of Wooster at home and abroad.

Once again the Betas carved the name, Saturday evening.

We announced in our first issue that two copies of the "Voice" would be sent free of charge to each student of the University. This is our second issue. It is our opinion that this year's college paper is going to be acceptable to the student body.
This is apparent from the manner in which contributions of literary matter are being made. But, students, we must have financial support to run a college publication, and the measure of this support will determine the grade of future issues.
If you have not already done so,
you should see the solicitors, and make the necessary arrangements.
Unless you discontinue the paper, we shall consider you a subscriber, for we believe you want the "Voice."

To those who have difficulty in finding the business manager, we wish to state that arrangements have been made at the treasurer's office for the payment of dues and discontinuing the paper. You will confer a favor upon us by making your decision at once.

Were you ever a manager of a paper? Well, that is a commonplace thing. Did you ever in publishing a paper also superintend the printing? You found it interesting, no doubt. But did you ever in your newspaper work, have the headings of the articles set in one place, the bodies of the same articles in a second place, the material put together by a third party, and the press work done by two other printers, a mile apart at the same time? You didn't?
Then you missed one of life's richest experiences. These statements will explain the unavoidable errors made in the meter and proof reading of last week's paper.

At this period of the school year,
when class feeling is running sky-high, you may wonder what position the Voice takes with regard to the situation. Now those who know us best will say, that although our intellectual temperament predominates, yet we can enjoy innocent fun in all its phases. We wish to state, however, that we stand for no actions in which personal enmity gets away with self control. In another column we print the opinion of a Junior from Holden Hall. We agree with some of her views; we emphasize, "Keep the personal element out."

The latest custom among the Seniors is calling each other by their first names. Lack of space forbids any expression of ideas at this time.

THE VOLUNTEER BAND.

The Volunteer Band is Wooster's contingent to the World's Student Volunteer Movement. Its regular open meetings are held every second Sabbath at the Conservatory. All students are cordially invited to "come and see," October 3. The movement does not need more members as much as it does interested and sympathetic friends. Do YOU think the cause worthy of your support? Then come.

Arrangements are under way to have a conference of the Northern Ohio Bands here on Oct. 16 and 17.
These conferences are held semi-annually and have proved good in the past. Let every one help to make the conference here the best. Among various plans is the one to have Dr.
Zwemer, head of the movement in the United States, with us. We are exceedingly fortunate in this and will surely give him a hearty reception at Wooster.

LOWELL.

Through some oversight, an invitation was omitted from the first issue of the Voice, therefore we now cordially invite all preparatory young men to our second meeting, Friday evening at 6:15. Lowell met last Friday and showed her fine spirit and work in a very inspiring meeting.
The program ran as follows:

Current Events, Mr. Wishard; Essays, Mr. W. Snyder and Mr. Carleton; Declamations, Mr. Wisner and Mr. L. Snyder; Readings, Mr. F.
Stewart and Mr. J. Garvin; Debate,
Resolved, That trusts and monopolies are a positive injury to the people financially. Affirm—J. Moore and S.
Martin; Deny—Avison and McClure.
Won by the affirmative.

CASTALIAN.

Castalian's program last Friday evening was very well attended, and each number was much appreciated.
Lela Sumner discussed a number of Current Events; Bess Livenspire
rendered "Hagar" with great intensity of expression; Bess Magee read a bright original story, "First Things First"; Margaret Winning read an essay on "The Manhood of Addison";
and then the comedienne "How the Story Grew," was presented. The dramatis personae were:

Mrs. Green ..... Bess Heindel
Mrs. Bean ..... Dorothy Martin
Mrs. Brown ..... Catharine Seelye
Mrs. Donnegan ..... Anna Palmer
Mrs. Doolittle ..... Ida Shafer
Mrs. Rice ..... Helen Hughes
Mrs. Taylor ..... Jessie Lee
Mrs. White ..... Bess Livenspire

After the program a pleasant social hour was enjoyed, after which the girls departed, to meet again next Friday evening. Last week's invitation to all new girls to visit the society is repeated. All who are interested are always welcome.

Y. M. C. A.

The large number of men at the mid-week meeting listened to an eloquent and convincing address by Rev. R. M. Huston of Mansfield on
"The Value of Systematic Bible Study for the College Men." In part he said:

Our subject gathers around the purpose of the men in attending college. Culture rather than technical education is the aim of the collegian: broader, better manhood through contact with other men and through courses intended to develop the nobler faculties of the mind. A knowledge of the Bible is indispensable to such development. Modern nations following Christ's code of ethics display a higher degree of culture than the heathen nations; the gloom and degradation of the dark ages stands sharply contrasted with the Bible studying period of the Renaissance. Furthermore, the knowledge of the Bible is necessary in all cultural studies, the greatest masterpieces of art represent biblical scenes; the great musical creations were inspired by the word of God; nowhere in literature can finer gems be found than in the Bible; history is empty without The Book, for it is authentic, far-reaching and interesting. Besides, these studies fail to develop culture if study of the Bible is omitted, for their superficial development does not touch the soul, and "the soul of culture is culture of the soul." Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

In the second place Bible study is the great character builder. This saying though trite is worthy of repetition, for we find such noble characters as Lincoln, Gladstone and Florence Nightingale to have been acquainted thoroughly with God's word. No morality is equal to God's great laws of love for thy Creator and for thy neighbor; the purpose of the Bible is to reveal Jesus Christ; the deaf and dumb unfortunates refer to it as the Jesus Book, and so it is, for it is filled with His love, reddened by His blood and electrified by His spirit. The study of the Bible is far reaching in its effect. Few college men realize the potency of college habits in after life. Instead of breaking away from our loose and easy-going methods of work, we find that they cling steadfastly to us. Bible study gives one a vision of Christ and strengthens him for the combats of life, for it roots and grounds him in God's great principles and laws.

APROPOS OF "ROUGH-HOUSE."

The first few weeks of school are the hardest of the year. The students are on a great strain. The tedium of registration, the adaptation to new surroundings and learning of new names and faces is hard on old and new students alike. It is in reply to the demands of nature that some relaxation break the tension. It is but natural to expect some outbreak to relieve the tense feelings, pent up during a week which because of the fast and strenuous living has been equal to four ordinary ones. Can inter-class debates satisfy the demand? Can tugs-of-war, planned and prepared for beforehand relieve the strained feelings. Present desire says that they cannot; past experience proves it!!!

Taking the dorm view of class scraps, the general consensus of opinion is that the impromptu squabbles, those which spring up on the spur of moment, and are the only ways in which to settle class disputes. If there were some deep and weighty question for decision between the classes it might be alright to settle them by little tugs-of-war or by debates; but there is no question of that kind. The class-scraps are purely for fun and as such should be decided in the spirit of fun by color-rushes or rough-house as popular feeling may deem best. These class rushes are carried on in the spirit of fun; there is no personal element enters in and Freshman leagues with Juniors, Senior with Sophs even in opposition to bosom friends. There is no animosity and after the scraps, Freshmen and Sophs are often better friends than before. It does not seem reasonable to try to check these outbreaks. As long as human nature remains as it is, Sophs will feel that their duty is to put the Freshmen in their proper places and it was as impossible to change this tendency as to put food before a hungry child and tell it not to long for it, dreaming that by the telling the desire would be destroyed.

We want class squabbles, we feel that they have a right to a place in our college life, the need for some such relaxation after a hard week of getting started is obvious, that the methods of settlement of class disputes provided for in tugs-of-war, ball games and debates are unsatisfactory is evident. Unless some radical change occurs in the characteristics of the Soph or the Freshmen turn suddenly docile there will in all probability be something doing. It's up to us all if we enter into these scraps to keep the personal element out, to scrap it out for the fun there is in it and to prove that class fights fill a great need and ought to be countenanced.

You May Have an Idea

that our store and our clothes are not very different from other stores and other clothes; that it doesn't make very much difference where you buy your suit or overcoat; nor very much difference what you buy. When you come here and ask for clothes, you'll realize that such an idea is a mistake. These clothes are different; they're all-wool, and that's unlike most clothes offered to you. They're perfectly tailored, and correct in every detail of style, and they fit.

It's such clothes as these that make this store different; you can't buy them elsewhere. You'll see the difference when you come in.

Suits $18. to $30. Overcoats $16.50 to $35

This store is the home of

CHARACTERFUL CLOTHES

THERE will always be some people to whom Character in Tailoring means nothing and price means everything. To such we do not address ourselves. The one test we stand is value—the very best quality for the lowest possible prices consistent with good work. This policy is evident in our clothes—they represent true values at moderate prices. We display an exhaustive stock of correct fall fabrics.
